LATIN EMPIRE of Constantinople

Feudal empire established in the S Balkan Peninsula and the Greek archipelago by the leaders of the FOURTH Crusade after the fall (1204) of Constantinople. Its secular and ~~ecclesiastical~~ ecclesiastical governments were carefully divided among the Crusaders and their Venetian Creditors. Its core was the empire of Romania, on both sides of the Dardanelles; its rulers were also marquises of the Kingdom of Thessalonica.

the Principality of Achaia, and other fiefs.

BALDWIN I, HENRY OF FLANDERS, Peter of Courtenay, and his wife, YOLANDE, ROBERT of COURTENAY, JOHN of BRIENNE and BALDWIN II were rulers. The empire declined immediately after its creation, being beset by the Greek emperors of NICAEA and despots of Epirus, by the BULGARS under IVAN II (Ivan Assen), by the Turks, by discord among the Westerners, and by Greek resistance.
